

Conversation Starters - Vocabulary you can USE

Imagine you're introducing yourself to your home-stay family.

Imagine the questions they'll ask you and how you'll answer. Think about what you'd like to ask them.

What vocabulary will you need? Write down the English. Steve will compile a list and give you the Japanese translations.

Think about your photo book. If you already have photos or ideas for photos, consider how you'll explain what's in the photos. That'll give you ideas for vocabulary suggestions. Look at the list of words you've come up with. That'll give you ideas for photos.
